CLINTON PLACE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

CLINTON SCHOOL SONG

Verse 1:

Nestled in Newark on a busy street,
Stands a school that can't be beat.
Clinton Place the name rings loud
Among the students who are so proud.

Chorus:

Clinton Place Oh Clinton Place,
Your banners raised on high.
We sing to you a song of praise;
Your name will never die.

Verse 2:

Beautiful things all make our school,
One huge diamond a precious jewel.
We're thankful for this place to learn
For in our hearts great pride will burn.

STUDENT'S CODE

I am a young teenager embarking upon adulthood. In order to achieve maturity, I must fulfill my duty to my parents, teachers, friends, and to myself, as an individual.

I Must:

1. Dress appropriately, follow the rules of good posture, speech, and manners.
2. Respect all races and religions so that brotherhood and good will can be shared by all people.
3. Appreciate the value of public and private property in order to maintain the high standards of my school and community.
4. Practice the principles of democracy and the rules of my school because they are beneficial to me and my fellow classmates.

I will try to uphold with dignity and pride, the ideals and rules of my school and this code at all times.

MISS ALEXANDRA A. SOZIO

With pride, we the class of June 1958, wish to dedicate this year book to you, Miss Sozio. Encouragement and understanding when needed, appreciation of our smallest accomplishments, your never failing enthusiasm and interest in all we do, make us realize how much you mean to us. We wish to express our best wishes for continued wisdom, happiness and success and dedicate this book to you, The First Lady of Clinton Place Junior High School.

Dear Graduates,

Your year at Clinton Place Junior High School was a significant one. As the senior group of students in a beautiful new building you have been true explorers. You have contributed in the development of a fine school spirit. You have been given opportunities for leadership and you have used these well. Your parents and teachers have guided you in your growth toward maturity.

The future belongs to you. Use it wisely so that one day you may take your place as adult members of society and help to build a better nation in a better world.

I am proud to have been your principal.

Sincerely,

Alexandra A. Sozio

Alexandra A. Sozio
Principal

It has been a memorable privilege to have shared with you in the experience of pioneering a new Junior High School. I am prophesying that your future success will be great because you have demonstrated your ability to accept challenges and to adjust to new conditions even though it meant hard work and application. My sincere wishes are extended to each of you for a happy and successful experience in your Senior High School period.

Michael McGreal

Mr. Michael McGreal
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

You of the graduating class of June, 1958 have a unique place in the history of your school. You have done much to set the character of Clinton Place Junior High School. You are yourselves the richer for this year. "According to the labor is the reward." You have labored well. In study, in service to the school, in social activity, you have helped to build the school, and have gone far to make yourselves good citizens of school and community. May your years be happy, rich and successful.

David A. Blank
Vice-Principal

CLASS ADVISORS

MRS. ANNE G. STROME
English Department

Our yearbook would not be complete without our expression of sincere thanks and gratitude to our class advisors, Mrs. Anne G. Strome, and Mr. Lloyd M. Adler. Their genuine enthusiasm, support, understanding, and above all their patience, has contributed greatly to the success of our yearbook. The generosity of their spirits and the wisdom of their guidance will be remembered long after we have been graduated from junior high school. Again we say, from the bottom of our hearts, thank you and best wishes for the future.

Talk to him of Jacob's ladder,
And he'll ask you how many steps.

RAYMOND REID
I bear a charmed live.

STEPHEN RICHMAN
Vim, vigor and vitality,
Plus loads of personality.

LYNNE RIMER
Neither too carefree nor too sad.

LYNN ROBBINS
All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players.

BARBARA RUBIN
Softly she speaks,
and sweetly she smiles.

ENID RUBIN
It's nice to be so natural,
when you're so naturally nice.

RONALD RUSSELL
A boy of great ability

CAROLYN RYAN
Her personality shall endure all tenses, past, present, and future.

BERNARD RYDZEWSKA
We know little about him,
but what we know is good.

VIVIAN SAKOFF
We know what we are, but we know not what we may be.

A rare combination of fun,
frolic, and fun.

BARRY WYNN
A dillar, a dollar,
a ten o'clock scholar.

JOHN YATES
To worry less, to study less,
is his idea of happiness.

SUSAN ZAITZ
A chatter and giggle,
as she goes.

THE EXPLORER

All the fights we've had about it,
All the times we've had to shout it.
Every sentence, every phrase,
Just like going through a daze.

Thinking about it gives me a shake,
My spine is all a shiver.
How many times we've said in vain,
"Where's the nearest river?"

Quotations are coming out of my ears,
The spelling was atrocious.
Patience is a virtue, but
Our editors were ferocious.

The patrons and the sponsor money,
Collected for our book,
Although at times we've been discouraged,
We got it, by hook or crook.

The spelling for the names in order,
What difference does it make?
That Zeller came before Zaloney,
We weren't quite awake.

Our art staff sketched both day and night,
To fill the pages with pictures.
The patterns that we tried to use,
Are sweet and simple mixtures.

The classes that we've missed each day,
The times we stayed real late,
To get each part all organized,
For the final deadline date.

But in the end we sighed with joy,
All happy that we were done.
Said each and every girl and boy,
"We've had a lot of fun!"

MIRIAM KATZMANN

LIZZIE MAE FREEMON
To be friendly is to be happy.

WILBERT GRIER
Tis good to be merry and wise.

MICHAEL GWOZDIK
I am a part of all that I met.

JERRY HANDZY
Be not deceived by his innocent appearance.

CATHARINE JOHNSON
Her voice is ever soft, gentle and low.

JEANNE KAVOURAS
Kindness is wisdom.

PETER KAZLAU
Mischief is afoot.

WANDA KEYS
All the charms of all the Muses.

WILLIAM MURPHY
Too much rest is rust.

JOAN PIRES
Easy lives and quiet dies.

PATRICIA PIRES
A quiet manner is nobler than a crown.

BRENDA PRESTON
A merry heart brightens
the way.

WILLIE ROBERTSON
Let tomorrow take care of itself.

BERNARD SPAULDING
Beautiful dreamer.

FRANK SZUKICS
I grow old learning something new every day.

BALDOMERO VELEZ
The harvest of a quiet eye

JOSEPH WASHCO
There's no sound so sweet as silence.

CLEO WILLIAMS
A pretty girl is like a melody.

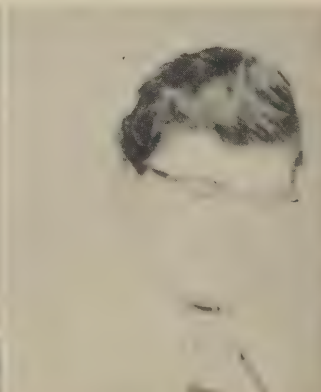

MARC ZIMETBAUM
A pleasant fellow, with pleasant ways, a lot of success and happy days.

HECTOR GAVILLA
He lives to build, not boast.

JACQUELINE HALL
The sweetest garland to the sweetest maiden.

ARLENE DUDA
Anything is possible for a willing heart.

A BACKWARD GLANCE

Some day when we look back with tears,
On all our junior high school years,
We'll think with joy of every friend
And how he reached his promised end.

The streets, the trees, around our school
The halls, the lines, the traffic rule,
They'll stay with us, remembered all,
Our heads held squarely, proud and tall.

We sang our song, oh long and proud,
At all our games we've cheered so loud.
Some day we'll think of memories gay
Successful then, we hope and pray.

SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

The school newspaper serves as the eyes and ears of the junior high. It records outstanding programs and special events; it familiarizes students with club and sports activities and with school personnel; it presents student opinion; and it offers opportunity for creative expression in print.

THE LIBRARY COUNCIL

We are the wheels that keep the library and the librarians working. We help with the book order, with processing new books and with reinforcing pamphlets and magazines. We write up those overdue notices that remind you to return your books. And we all help get the books back on the shelves so that we can check them out to you when you borrow them. We are a service club. We serve you through the library. We help check and deliver all visual aids and museum materials as they are received. We're on duty after lunch and after school and we're part of a statewide organization called the New Jersey State Library Councils Associations.

GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

The door is always ajar so that you may come at any time for help, advice and friendship. Here, in the Guidance Office, your counselor will help you understand yourself, discover and use your interests, and aptitudes, develop a desirable personality, make wise choices, solve your problems, explore the world of work, plan wisely for your future, become self adjusted and help you with your school adjustments, so that Junior High School will be a happy, successful, and profitable experience.

This club was organized as a service to the entire school. Each member is certified to operate movie and slide projectors, record players, and tape recorders. Operators are available in each class.

THE FOSSIL COLLECTION CLUB

This club is designed to help children develop an interest in- to scientific thinking.

The knowledge gained from this activity enables the pupil to unfold the sequential history of the earth with its plant and animal life.

A field trip is planned to enable the club members to find fossils for themselves in a fossiliferous area in Milford, Pennsylvania.

THE CHECKER CLUB

Checkers, like Chess, is a game which requires the use of one's mental faculties. It develops the powers of concentration, observation and fair play. It can bring many pleasurable, relaxed hours to the players. Lifetime friendship have originated by having a common bond or interest.

Checkers is such an interest.

THE SCRABBLE AND CROSSWORD PUZZLE CLUB

The Scrabble and Crossword Puzzle Club was organized to acquaint members with a few more pleasant ways of increasing word power. Enjoyment in playing these games grows as spelling skill and knowledge of synonyms and antonyms increases.

We meet for a game of Scrabble or Crossword play, and try our skill in matching one another word for word!

THE SERVICE CLUB

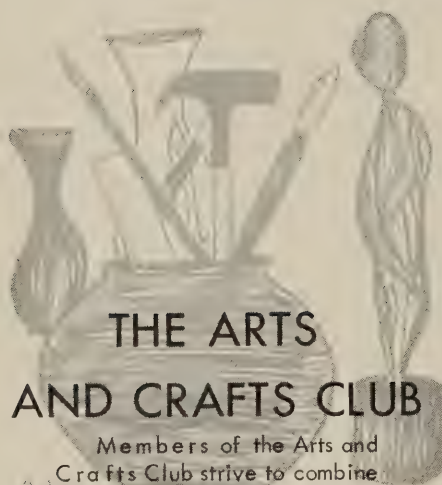

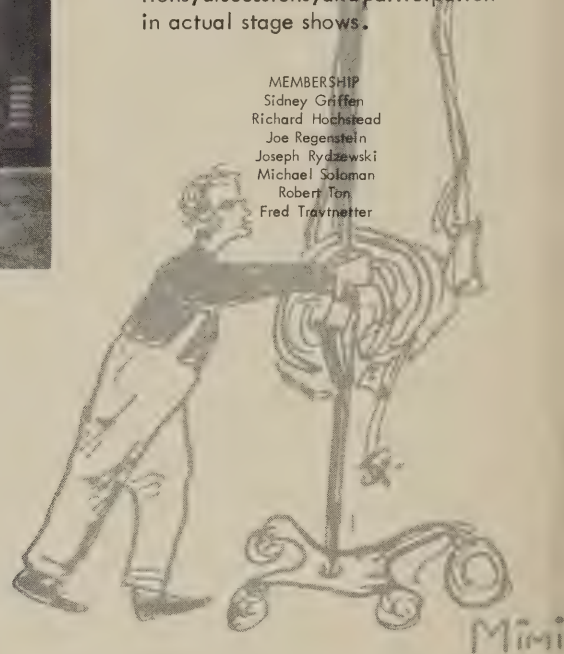

This group of students has been selected to help keep our cafeteria in order.

THE STAGE CRAFT CLUB

The functions of the Stage Craft Club is to familiarize its members with the techniques and methods of scenery design, set decorations, and lighting. We are particularly concerned with stage lighting and its effects, and detail instruction is given in the use of our very fine lighting panel. This learning is accomplished through demonstrations, discussions, and participation in actual stage shows.

CLINTON PLACE JR. HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Our school orchestra offers many opportunities for the musical student. It is an integral part of school life. As a socializing factor, the orchestra teaches the student how to play with others in order to produce fine music. By means of concerts and assemblies, the orchestral student becomes a contributory factor towards the success of other school functions. Individual talent is encouraged by means of sole or ensemble playing within the orchestra or at special assemblies and functions. Playing in a school orchestra prepares the student for future music enjoyment in late life.

THE DANCE BAND

This is a student club which has been formed for the purpose of training the student in the field of dance band work. He learns to play together with other students and to recognize the value of early training in learning to play dance music. Complete cooperation is required of every member of the dance band in order to have an effective and interesting music organization. The dance band is available for school dances and other extra-curricular activities.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The boys who represented Clinton Place Junior High School in basketball were selected because they showed the best work during the intra-mural games program. They were kept as members of the team because they showed not only ability and team-work but they learned the all-important lesson of sportsmanship.

THE LATIN CLUB

With the surprisingly mature cooperation of our brilliant Latin students, a Latin Club has begun to come to life here at Clinton Place. Its program has included a trip to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and to the Cloisters as well as a fashion show of the latest thing in togae and stolae. A very cool party at which patrician and plebian cats donned glad-rags instead of the usual sedate togae was the crowning point of the social season. We've created our little circle in order to provide ourselves with an opportunity of getting to know each other socially within a cultural context.

THE DRAMATICS CLUB

To teach our children to express themselves, and to help them analyze their own feelings and actions for a better understanding of themselves and as a means to better understanding other people is the aim of the Dramatics Club.

GYMNASTICS INCORPORATED

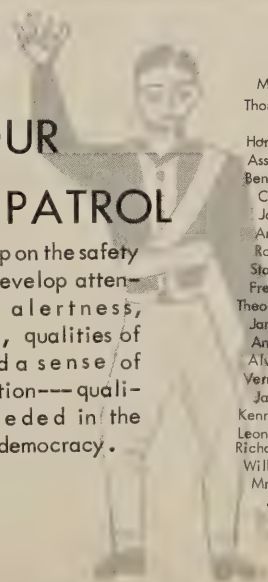

Every Friday we go at three,
To pay our respects to the G.I.C.
So named are we for athletic aspires,
Of the bars, of the mats and the rings
we never tire.
Though our members of the female sex,
We've got a lot to offer girls so let's get hep
So don't forget, come Friday at three,
And see what it's like at the G.I.C.

CLASS WILL

As we leave Clinton Place to explore the broad fields of education, we, the class of June 1958, being all of sound minds and bodies, draw up this, our Last Will and Testament;

To Miss Sozio: We leave the warmest appreciation for her leadership and guidance and best wishes for the future.

To Mr. Blank: We can only leave you with the feeling that you have made our year at Clinton Place, a pleasant and an enjoyable one for us. Thank you....

To Mrs. Strome and Mr. Adler: We owe you our deep gratitude for the able assistance, patience, and understanding, you have given us as our grade advisors.

To Mrs. Keith: We want to thank you for your help in preparing us to take one of the biggest steps in our lives.

To Mrs. Klayman: Our thanks to you for the guidance you have offered us when we needed it so.

To Mr. Ackerman: We leave the headaches and the art work for future yearbooks.

To Mr. Abrams: We leave a group of giggling girls.

To Mr. Pescatore: We leave the undying memory of "Winnie the Poo."

To Mr. M. Schaefer: We leave a class of Philosophy majors.

To Mrs. Pokras: We leave a lifetime subscription to "Our Worlds of Work."

To Mr. Applebaum: We leave the upper right hand corners of envelopes, hoping they will help you and your Stamp Club.

To Mr. Puckowitz: We leave a tabulating machine for all future Student Council elections.

To Mrs. Berson: We leave "les jeunes filles et les garçons" that STRIVE for French accents.

To Mr. Rooney: We leave a lifetime pass to the Cloisters.

To Mr. Kirkendall: We leave an application for your own classroom.

To Mr. Kosofsky: We leave you the permission to continue the Science Club, long after we're gone.

To Mr. Dultz: We leave a new cage for Venus.

To Mr. Aratow: We leave a complete visual aids department.

To Mr. Schulman: We leave your tests for unsuspecting students.

To Mr. Wiel: We'll try to leave a class which is able to do verbal problems.

To Mrs. Downing: We leave all the student's problems, so that you can say "grant you."

To Mr. Rosenberg: We leave a radar device to detect all latecomers to homeroom.

To Mrs. Bocim: We leave a cigar box filled with used traffic violations.

To Miss Schmalberg: We leave a reliable staff to operate the ditto machine.

To Mr. Schaffer: We leave a year's supply of flash bulbs and films to take more candid shots of C. P.

To Mrs. Schnieder: We leave all future art geniuses.

To Mr. McElroy: We leave a yardstick to replace the broken one.

To Mr. Musky: We leave the finest orchestra in the city.

To Mr. Nevola: We leave eight days detention every week.

To Mrs. Berardo: Though we're sorry we can't leave you our leprechauns, we leave you the entire student body to choose future ones.

To Mr. Miceli: "Have Gun, Will Travel."

To Mr. Greco and Mr. Traynor: We leave an ample supply of trees to supply you with wood for the shops.

To Mr. Salkin: We leave you a successful matchmaking career.

To Mrs. Di Croce: We leave a well arranged home living center.

To Mr. Sosnow: Because you're such a good caller, we've arranged for you to have a job with Ringling Brothers' Circus this summer.

To Mr. Rothbard: We leave a quiet and orderly cafeteria.

To Mr. Plasner: We leave a merit badge for the fine job you have done with the Safety Patrol.

To Mrs. Grindlinger: We leave a complete first period health class on Friday's.

To Miss Kramer: We leave "Cuddles" and a glorified copy of a "Volley Ball Test."

To Miss Scholer: We leave all our undergraduates to replace the graduating cheerleaders.

To the Office Staff: We leave very few 9A class lists.

To the Custodians: We leave all the scraps of paper you can find in the halls.

To All Undergraduates: You've heard the saying "No more pencils, no more books"; We leave them both.

And to our successors the present 9B's, the future 9A's, we leave our best traditions—our dreams—our willingness to work—and our desires to explore the future with courage.

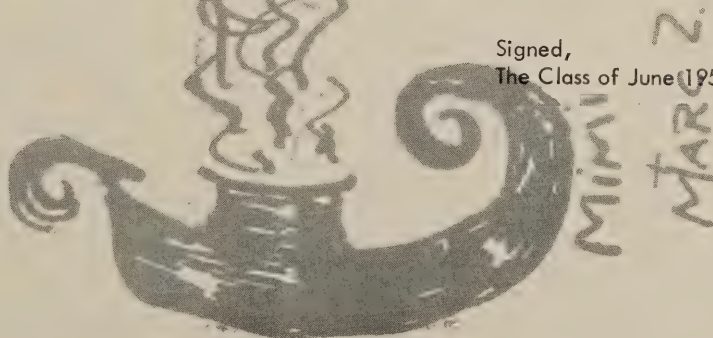

Signed,
The Class of June 1958
